THE BIG REVEAL: NEW RESEARCH ON THE SOUTH UNION SHAKERS

6am-9pm FRIDAY, APRIL 20 + 8am-3pm SATURDAY, APRIL 21

This year's event will feature research projects by SUSV current and former staff members, with topics to include African American Shakers, the 1854 Wash House restoration, silk production at South Union, artistry in the village's chair seat weaving techniques, and South Union's agricultural legacy. The seminar begins on Friday night with dinner at the historic South Union Hotel and resumes at the Centre House for presentations and special tours on Saturday. Breakfast and lunch are provided on Saturday with the cost of registration.

This year's event is presented in honor of our long-time friend and supporter, Elaine Disch
